

WISCONSIN IDEA SEMINAR

May 16-20, 2005

New Faculty
Recently Tenured Faculty
Department Chairs and Deans
Academic Staff with Statewide Responsibilities

It is well worth the time. An eye-opening experience.

David Noyce
College of Engineering

Don't miss this chance to meet so many interesting colleagues while taking a 'crash-course' in the state and its resources.

John Niles
College of Letters and Science

Do it! We got a behind-the-scenes look at things we wouldn't have seen otherwise.

Andrea Mason
School of Education

Do not miss this opportunity to:

- 1) Develop connections and friendships with colleagues from across campus.
- 2) Gain a deeper understanding of your students' hometown roots.
- 3) Meet community leaders and people engaged in Wisconsin's businesses.
- 4) Discover the impact UW-Madison has in the lives of state residents.
- 5) Learn more than you can imagine about the history, ecology, politics and culture of Wisconsin.

2005 Wisconsin Idea Seminar tour

The 2005 tour stops at the state capitol, Madison; the Aldo Leopold Shack, Baraboo; a dairy farm near Humbird; XMI Corporation, Chippewa Falls; UW-Baron County, Rice Lake; Lac Courtes Oreilles Reservation; the town of Bayfield on Lake Superior; Lincoln Hills School, Irma; La Clinica de Los Campesinos, Wautoma; and Milwaukee Public Schools.
