THIRD EXAM (Wednesday, May 9)

Course Requirements

READING:

Textbook: Robert C. Ostergren and John G. Rice, The Europeans: A Geography of People, Culture and Environment (New York: Guilford Press, 2004).

EVALUATION:

- (1) Map Quiz on physical features and political units (Wednesday, Feb 7), 20 pts. Students are asked to locate physical features and political units on a blank outline map. For preparation purposes, lists of physical features and political units, as well as blank outline maps are provided during the first week of classes. These preparation materials may also be found at Learn@UW.

(2) Three exams (Monday, Feb 26; Wednesday, Mar 28; and Wednesday, May 9), each 60 pts. Exams usually feature a mixture of testing techniques (multiple choice, map questions, short answer, etc.) and are non-cumulative. Students are responsible on exams for both lecture and reading materials. Please note: there is no final exam, just three equal semester exams.

GRADING:

Grades are distributed according to the following scheme (with some allowance for upward adjustment of student grades if necessary):

93 – 100%	A
88 – 92.99	AB
80 – 87.99	B
75 – 79.99	BC
68 – 74.99	C
60 – 67.99	D
< 60	F

EXTRA CREDIT:

Students may earn up to 4 points extra credit. Credit is earned by submitting a copy of a news item relevant to course material, accompanied by a brief paragraph or two relating the item to course material. The idea here is to encourage students to stay abreast of news events in Europe. News items may come from any source, but often the easiest way is to follow one of the on-line news services. Some good English language options are: BBC News (www.bbcnews.com), Deutsche Welle (www.dw-world.de), The Economist (www.economist.com), International Herald Tribune (www.iht.com). All have good regional coverage. For links to more news services, see the list on the course web page at Learn@UW. Don't be in a rush to submit. To earn maximum credit, follow the news daily or weekly and choose an item that seems to have strong geographical relevance as defined by topical discussions in class and text. You may submit only one extra credit item.

ABSENCES:

If you miss an exam due to illness or emergency, please contact me as soon as you can conveniently do so to arrange a makeup. If you know you will miss an exam for reasons other than illness or emergency, please consult with me in advance so that your absence can be excused and arrangements for taking the exam at an alternative time can be made.

LECTURE POWERPOINT PRESENTATIONS:

Lecture PowerPoint presentations will be made available to you at Learn@UW, usually within a day or so. This is intended to help you review materials and study for exams, not as an alternative to class attendance.

GRADS and HONORS: Please see me about additional course requirements.
