Geospatial (GIS) Data User Agreement
Arthur H. Robinson Map Library

Notice to users of county, municipal and RPC GIS data from the Robinson Map Library Collection:

*This document shall accompany any digital GIS data distributed to UW-Madison students, faculty, and staff from the Robinson Map Library Digital Geospatial Data Collection.

Digital GIS data acquired from the Robinson Map Library are available to University of Wisconsin-Madison students, faculty, and staff for criticism, comment, teaching, scholarship, or research purposes. The library reserves the right to verify the educational purpose of each request. Under no circumstances is the data to be used in conjunction with any commercial/for-profit endeavor where a private entity stands to benefit (economically or otherwise) from its use.

By requesting and receiving digital GIS data from the Robinson Map Library, the user agrees to the following:

Consistent with United States and Wisconsin State law, the Robinson Map Library is providing this data with the understanding that I will use the data solely for criticism, comment, teaching, scholarship, or research purposes. These uses are permitted as “fair uses” under the law and comply with terms of individual county license agreements signed in good faith by the University of Wisconsin-Madison. I understand that any use of the material for purposes other than those described above could lead to sanctions, including academic or non-academic discipline.

I further understand that such misuse constitutes copyright infringement and/or violation of legally binding license agreements, and could make me subject to legal action by the copyright owner/licensor. I release the Robinson Map Library and the University of Wisconsin-Madison from any and all liability, claims, and actions that may arise from my misuse of this material.
